

Education

- D.Phil. in U.S. History (Oxford University, defended December 2021). Thesis: ‘States of the Union: Federalism and the Origins of American Intergovernmental Relations, c. 1789-1820.’
- M.St. in U.S. History (Oxford University, 2017). Thesis: ‘Remembering the Federal Convention in the United States, 1836-1861.’
- B.A. (Hons) First Class in Modern History (Oxford University, 2016).

Full-Time Employment

- Kinder Junior Research Fellow in Atlantic History, Oxford University (June 2022-August 2025).

Academic Publications

- Review of Christopher R. Pearl, Conceived in Crisis: The Revolutionary Creation of an American State (Charlottesville, 2021), Reviews in History, April 16 2021.
- Nicholas Cole, Alfie Abdul-Rahman & Grace Mallon, ‘A framework for modelling and visualizing the U.S. Constitutional Convention of 1787,’ International Journal on Digital Libraries, November 2018.

Academic Articles in Progress

- ‘The Extraordinary Longevity of Elliot’s Debates in American Constitutional Discourse,’ revise-and-resubmit decision received 2021 from Law and History Review; revisions in progress.
- ‘Federalism for Beginners: Learning to Govern the Union in the Early American Republic,’ in progress.
- ‘Washington and the Governors: Inventing American Intergovernmental Relations, 1789-97,’ in progress.

Public History and Commentary

- Guest presenter, ‘The States’ Rights Episode,’ The Last Best Hope?: Understanding America from the Outside In, December 2021.
- Podcast guest, ‘The Insurrection Episode,’ The Last Best Hope?: Understanding America from the Outside In, January 2021.
- Contributor, ‘Inauguration 2021: A Roundtable,’ Insurrect! Radical Thinking in Early American Studies, January 2021.
- ‘When states try to bend other states to their will, it threatens the American union,’ Washington Post ‘Made by History,’ December 2020.
- ‘President Trump can send the military to police Americans, but is doing so wise?’ Washington Post ‘Made by History,’ June 2020.
- Podcast guest, ‘The Federalism Episode,’ The Last Best Hope?: Understanding America from the Outside In, May 2020.

- ‘Covid-19 needs federal leadership, not authoritarianism from Donald Trump,’ Washington Post ‘Made by History,’ April 2020.

Fellowships and Funding

- Dr William M. and Betty H. Busey Family Fellowship, Fred W. Smith Library for the Study of George Washington, 2021-22.
- Rothermere American Institute Fourth-Year Scholarship in American Politics, 2020-21.
- Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History Scholarly Fellowship, 2019-20.
- Colin Matthew Fund Travel Scholarship, St Hugh’s College, Oxford, 2019-20.
- Peter Nicolaisen International Fellowship, International Center for Jefferson Studies at Monticello, 2018-19.
- Rothermere American Institute Travel Scholarship, 2018-19, 2019-20.
- Edward Orsborn Graduate Scholarship, University College, Oxford, 2017-2020.

Research Seminars

- Presenter, ‘Forts, Firearms, and Federalism: Military Preparedness in the United States from the Washington Administration to the War of 1812,’ City University of New York Early American Republic Seminar, November 2020.
- Presenter, ‘Indian Affairs in Intergovernmental Perspective: State Subversion of Federal Indian Policy and the Dispossession of Indigenous People in the Founding Era,’ Edinburgh University American History Workshop, August 2020.
- Founder and convenor, Oxford Early American Republic Seminar (OxEARS). Funded by the Rothermere American Institute, 2018-present.
- Convenor, American History Graduate Seminar, Rothermere American Institute, Oxford, 2018-2019.

Selected Invited Conference Papers

- ‘Federal Indian Policy and the Problem of the States in the 1790s,’ SHEAR Annual Meeting, New Orleans, July 2022.
- ‘Repugnancy: The Career of a Concept,’ American Society for Legal History (ASLH) Annual Meeting, New Orleans, November 2021.
- ‘Ignorance of the Law in a Federal Republic,’ Society for Historians of the Early American Republic (SHEAR) Annual Meeting, Philadelphia, July 2021.
- ‘George Washington’s Sulgrave: Family History and the Problem of Englishness in the Early United States,’ Continuities and Disruptions in Transatlantic Histories, Sulgrave Manor, June 2021.
- Conference organiser, ‘Identities, Politics, and Colonial and Postcolonial Constitution-Making, 1776-2019,’ Pembroke College, Oxford, April 2020. Keynote speaker: Linda Colley. Funded by TORCH Oxford and the Mellon Foundation. [Cancelled due to COVID-19.]
- ‘State Law, Federalism, and the Problem of Repugnancy after 1787,’ American Historical Association (AHA) Annual Meeting, New York, January 2020.
- Roundtable, ‘Tom Paine’s America: New Perspectives on Anglo-American Radicalism,’ British Association for American Studies (BAAS) Annual Conference, University of Sussex, April 2019.

Grace Mallon

- 'Practical Federalism: Policy-Making in the Early American Republic, 1781-1801,' BrANCH Annual Conference, Madingley Hall, Cambridge University, October 2018.

Other Research

- April-June 2018: research assistant to Professor Kristin Collins, Boston University School of Law, contributing research on the legal history of the early American republic to new book project.
- June 2016-September 2017: research assistant to Dr Nicholas Cole, Pembroke College, Oxford, on the Quill Project (www.quillproject.net), an online platform for the study of negotiated texts, especially the United States Constitution and state constitutions.

Teaching Experience

- Instructor and course designer, Constitutional Studies 2600: Comparative Constitutionalism, Utah Valley University, August-December 2021 (remotely from the UK).
- Guest lecturer, 'Dividing Sovereignty in 1787,' Constitutional Literacy Institute Summer Programme, Center for Constitutional Studies at Utah Valley University, July 2020 and July 2021 (remotely from the UK).
- Co-chair, 'North American Women's, Gender, and Sex History in Transnational Context,' MSt in U.S. History optional seminar, Oxford, January-February 2021.
- Tutor and course designer, 'America and Great Britain from Yorktown to the War of 1812,' Oxford Study Abroad Programme, January-March 2021.
- Tutor and course designer, 'Secession, Emancipation, and Reconstruction in Constitutional Perspective,' Williams-Exeter Programme at Oxford, January-March 2021.
- Tutor, EWF9 'From Independence to Empire, 1763-1898' revision tutorials, Exeter College, Oxford, May 2020.
- Teaching assistant, Further Subject 'The First New Nation,' University of Oxford, January-March 2020.
- Tutor and course designer, 'Introduction to U.S. History, 1776-1865,' Oxford Study Abroad Programme, January-March 2020.
- Graduate assistant, Gilder Lehrman Institute Teacher Seminar 'The Age of Lincoln,' St Catherine's College, Oxford, August 2019.
- Teacher, UNIQ History Summer School 'Order and Freedom,' St Catherine's College, Oxford, April 2019.
- Tutor, termly Academic Writing Course, St Peter's College, Oxford, January 2019-January 2021.
- Teaching assistant, Special Subject 'Slavery and the Crisis of the Union, 1854-1865,' University of Oxford, October-December 2018.